Brief description of the activities the scholar performed or participated in:

I have worked on a project exploring and defining the significance of emotional intelligence in leadership and other points related. Then, I converted the main points into a PowerPoint presentation and offered insights and suggestions for workshops focused on developing emotional intelligence.

Written feedback about the scholar's performance:

Leila's project on emotional intelligence in leadership showcases her strong understanding of this crucial topic. Her ability to present complex ideas in a PowerPoint format highlights her communication skills. Additionally, her workshop suggestions demonstrate a proactive approach to promoting personal growth and enhancing organizational effectiveness. Leila's contributions are valuable for leadership development programs.
