Brief description of the activities the scholar performed or participated in:

I volunteer as a research moderator at InnovaThrive, where I oversee and manage research documents in the field of technology. My responsibilities include ensuring that all submitted research adheres to established guidelines before approval. This involves verifying that proper citations and references are included, confirming the presence of the organization's logo, and carefully checking for indications that the content may have been generated by AI. Through this role, I help maintain the quality and credibility of technological research published by the organization.

Written feedback about the scholar's performance:

Hadi Majed's role as a research moderator at InnovaThrive was instrumental in maintaining the quality and integrity of research submissions. His meticulous attention to detail in verifying citations, ensuring proper formatting, and preventing AI-generated content contributed to upholding the organization's standards. Hadi's commitment to excellence has been a key asset to the research team.
