Brief description of the activities the scholar performed or participated in:

My tasks were about doing research about topics like (AI in Early Warning Systems for Natural Disasters, AI in Monitoring and Enhancing Crop Yields in Precision Agriculture).

In first topic :

I searched in many sites to explore how AI can optimize crop yields through real-time environmental data analysis.

in the second topic :

I searched about leveraging AI to predict and mitigate the effect of natural disasters.

In these researches my knowledge about AI is enhanced and I understand more how AI can help us in different fields.

Written feedback about the scholar's performance:

Jawad displays strong research skills and a deep understanding of AI applications in both agriculture and natural disaster management. His ability to explore diverse fields and enhance his knowledge of AI's potential demonstrates a strong curiosity and problem-solving mindset.
