Brief description of the activities the scholar performed or participated in:

I work on the topic of Expanding Arab League's Relations with International Organizations . I start with introduction to the topic ( overview of the topic ,purpose of the committee discussion , and key questions for delegates ) . Then , I start with the introduction to the Arab league (History of the Arab league , current role and objectives , and recent diplomatic initiatives ) . After that I search about key international organizations such as ; BRICS ( potential benefits and challenges when collaborate with the Arab league ) , Group of seven(introduction to it and cooperation areas) , ASEAN , OAS,AU and EU . Then, I start with the potential areas of cooperation ( economic integration , security and counterterrorism, political and diplomatic alliances , social development and human right , environmental sustainability ) . Moreover, I work on challenges and barriers to expanding relations ( political disparities , economic disparities and competing interests , regional instability and conflicts, diplomatic and legal hurdles) . After that , I search about case studies on existing partnerships between Arab leagues and international organizations like the EU and AU and the lessons learned and on success stories . Finally , the conclusion I recap the potential benefits of expanding the Arab League's relations with international organizations and Offer final thoughts on how the Arab League should prioritize and approach these international partnerships. Suggestions for how delegates can move forward with discussions on this top.
